BARNEYISM IN NEW ENGLAND.

The Resolutions Adopted at the Boston Meeting.

By Telegraph to the News.

BOSTON, August 6—The following resolutions were adopted at the Kearney meeting last night:—

WHEREAS, This Republic, instituted for the avowed purpose of advancing and conserving the interests of the masses, has been reduced to plutocracy which employs the Republican and Democratic parties in the perfidious work of establishing thieving monopolies and class privileges that sap the blood of national industries so that it can be sopped up by the vampires of capital.

WHEREAS, All laws enacted that are not in the direct and open interests of the producing and laboring classes are crimes against the spirit and prosperity of this Republic for which the Legislators should be branded with the infamy of criminal imprisonment.

WHEREAS, Infamous and if not criminal class legislation has been heaped on the industries of the nation by political parties until the burden has become a torture of the masses from which there is no escape except by uniting mutual interests of the producing and laboring people of all classes in such political action as will give them their rightful control of State and National legislation, privileges of which they have been plundered, and thereby restore this government to the just and lofty purposes for which it was instituted by our patriot fathers, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the citizens of Boston, in Faneuil Hall assembled, that it is in the highest and truest interests of all industrial classes in New England, that they should extend hearty, cordial and united support to Dennis Kearney, the great, efficient apostle of the laboring classes of California, who comes among them for the noble purpose of uniting them as he invited their brothers in his own State in that political action which is necessary to restore this government to its first and humane principles for which it was instituted, so that the prosperity of this people may be recalled and firmly established.

The Labor Question.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, August 6.—This being the last day of the congressional labor investigation, the committee's attendance was unusually large. The majority "volunteers" carried copious documents ready to be heard individually or collectively, were somewhat clamorous. George E. McNeill, President of the International Workingmen's Union, of West Somerville, Massachusetts, was the first witness. The whole difficulty in his opinion is the wage system of labor, or in other words, that the wage system and steam engine are contemporaneous, and that the productive power has exceeded the power of consumption.

Mr. Peck, of Dauling, Conn., thought that instead of lending hundreds of millions of dollars to the banks, the government should lend some few hundred millions, free of interest, to the workingmen.

Another gentleman was for abolishing the United States Senate restricting the power of Congress, and the President to issue fifty-eight dollar per capita and curtailing the hours of labor to six, and allow no one outside of the labor bureau to employ laborers.

Mr. Hewitt read the following questions which the committee will submit to the public: The congressional committee earnestly request the co-operation of the public in all sections of the country in obtaining information to aid in the practical solution of the important questions submitted to it. It especially invites suggestions from representative men in all departments of business. It proposes the following questions to the employers of labor throughout the country:

First, What were the selling prices of your products in 1860, and in each subsequent year down to 1878, inclusive?

Second, what were wages paid by you in each of these years for labor employed.

Third, where the persons furnishing information are willing to do so the committee invites them to state the per centage of profit made by them in each of these years upon capital employed in their business.

Fourth, what were the wholesale and retail prices of leading articles of family consumption during each of these years in your vicinity.

Fifth, what is the difference if any between rents of tenements occupied by operatives in the years of 1866 and 1878 in your vicinity.

Sixth, what was the comparative amount of products of your business in quantity and value in the years of 1860 and 1878.

Seventh, state the comparatives steadiness of employment of operatives between the years of 1860 and 1878 inclusive. The committee invites suggestions from employers an employed as to the extent and causes of the present depression in business, and as to any special federal legislatives which in their opinion would tend to relieve the same The committee will hold its next meeting in the New York Post office, August 20.

Gates, J. J. Gatling, Democrat, to the House.

Chowan, Hobbs, Republican, to the House.

Perquimans, Blasdell, Republican, to the House.

Currituck, J. M. Woodhouse, Democrat, to the House, and Grandy Solicitor.

Platform of the Louisiana Democrats.

By Telegraph to the News.

BATON ROUGE, Aug. 6.—The State Convention platform recommends the Levee system, calls for aid to Southern Pacific Railroad and Brooklyn Steamship line, endorses the Nicholls Government and the State Fuinding Laws, approves the fraud investigation by the Federal house, Resolutions are in favor of calling a Constitutional Convention, asserts that the welfare of the industrial and wealth producing classes is of permanent interest to the people of the United States. Those whose labor and enterprise produce wealth should be secured in its engagement. It expresses sympathy for the laboring classes who have been thrown out of employment by the ruinous financial policy, and unjust legislation of the Republican party and pledged the Democratic party to reform these wrongs upon its ascendancy to power. Declare that the national banking system should be abolished and national bank notes retired, and in lieu thereof that government should issue an equal amount of greenbacks; also demand the unconditional repeal of the laws imposing a tax upon the circulation of State banks, also the immediate unconditional repeal of the resumption act, and are unalterably opposed to the ruinous policy pursued by the Republican party whereby the volume of currency has been contracted far below the business requirements of the country.

Serious Condition of Affairs on the Border.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 6.—In the Cabinet, to-day, the Secretary of War said, news had been received by the War Department from the Rio Grande, to the effect that several Mexican companies were being organized for the purpose of repelling raids across the river by the United States forces. It is regarded that matters are approaching a serious condition in that section. The orders to General Ord, as frequently stated remain in force, and the raiders upon this side of the river will be followed into Mexico beyond doubt, though the wish of the government is, there shall be no occasion for any further crossing by our soldiers. This discussion of the matter was interesting, but it was not considered that any necessity exists at present for any additional orders to the American forces. Occurrences of a startling character would be attended to as they arose.

The Bishop Failure.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, August 6.—At a meeting of the creditors of R. M. Bishop & Co., grocers, Cincinnati, the assets were stated to be $256,828. A committee of six was appointed to investigate the affairs of the firm. The failure is attributed to the heavy depreciation in real estate. Referring to the rumor that Bishop's electioneering expenses in the last campaign had something to do with the failure, his son, it is said, stated to the creditors yesterday, that Governor Bishop's campaign expenses did not exceed $6,500, and that he had not drawn over $150 from the firm since he has occupied the gubernatorial chair.

English Affairs.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, August 6.—In the House of Commons to-day Sir Stafford Northcate, moving the supplementary estimates, said that the House must provide for a deficit of £4,300,000. He proposed to issue exchequer bonds extending through three years, of which £200,000 would be needed this year.

Beaconsfield and Salisbury have received congratulatory deputations from various conservative associations throughout the country. Beaconsfield spoke of the necessity of conservative organization at home, which is by some people construed as a hint at early dissolution.

DIGEST OF OPINIONS

Of the Supreme Court, Filed at June Term, 1878, to Appear in 79 N. C. Reports.

[Reported for the News by Walker Clark, Esq., Attorney at Law]

The following opinions were filed Monday afternoon:

BY SMITH, C. J.:

81. Dobson v. Chambers, from Buncombe.

Petition to rehear this case reported 78 N. C., 334. Opinion re-affirmed and Held; positive and direct evidence of a previous request to pay the debt of another is not always attainable, and is not required to charge the debtor with liability.

BY SMITH, C. J.:

82. Burnett v. Nicholson, from Halifax.

Damages can only be recovered by the defendant on the dissolution of an injunction where it has been sued out without probable cause or not bona fide. The injunction bond required by Sec. 192, C. C. P., is only to secure this liability, not to extend it. Semble. Damages on the dissolution of a restraining order stand on the same footing and can be given in the same cases.

By SMITH, C. J.:

83. Meekins v. Tatem, from Tyrrell.

The regulations in regard to appeals C. C. P. sec. 301 must be observed. Where the transcript comes up with no exceptions taken, no errors pointed out, and no concise statement of facts to enable the court to pass upon the correctness of the rulings of the judge, but leaving the court to grope its way through a voluminous record and ascertain if everything was legally and correctly done, the judgment below will be affirmed. The court will only pass upon exceptions taken below and when the facts upon which they depend are distinctly presented. The only exceptions, in civil cases, is where there is a want of jurisdiction or where upon the whole case the defendants are not entitled to recover.

By READE, J.

84. Jones vs. Mial, from Wake.

Where the defendant and plaintiff agreed in May that the latter was to establish a public journal, giving bond to maintain it for twelve months and the defendant was to furnish a certain number of subscribers with the subscription money on Oct. 1, and another certain number on Jan 1, and the defendant not complying the plaintiff stopped publication before the end of the twelve months and sold the paper etc. Held. Both having broken the contract neither could sue the other upon the contract without alleging performance on his part. The remedy, if any, is on the common counts for money had, quantum meruit, etc.

By READE, J.:

85. Smith v. Smith, Executors, from Halifax. In an action on a bond against an executor by the assignees thereof who are also legatees of the defendant's testator, if there are no assets in his hands to pay the debt without calling on the plaintiff to refund his legacy, such right is a counterclaim to the bond sued on. An executor is properly chargeable with the proceeds of cotton shipped to a firm after it had, on a former shipment, been guilty of unfair dealings Five per cent. commissions allowed an executor on the value of land turned over, under an arrangement with the creditors, to devisees, is too much. Two and a half per cent. is sufficient. Where the estate of the testator was large the amount of his indebtedness small, the testator having set aside a sufficient amount as he thought, to pay his debts, it was not negligence in the executor to assent to the legacies within six months he reasonably supposing that enough was retained to pay debts. An executor is not chargeable by reason of having assented to a legacy to the widow, which does not amount to more than her dower at law. He is not chargeable with value of produce shipped to a house in good repute, but which fails with the proceeds in their hands. He is accountable, of course, for rents on lands turned over to devisees under the impression that they would not be required to pay debts, but if he must account for rents, so must the plaintiff where he is also a devisee. The fact that the testator was a good business man, and that the devises were of specific farms which the testator had in his life time put in the possession of the devisees, coupled with the testator's large property and small indebtedness, (the "crisis" subsequently bringing the estate into embarrassment), together constitute such mistake or accident as to entitle the executor to call upon the legatees and devisees to refund. The plaintiffs are entitled to have undevised land of the testator in another county sold before being compelled to abate their debt by reason of the counterclaim set up.

BY READE, J.:

86 Smith v. Smith Ex'r's, from Halifax Defendant's Appeal. Same opinion as number 85.

By READE, J.:

87. Willis v. Germania and Hanover Fire Insurance Companies, from Robeson. Where there has been good faith on the part of the insured and a substantial compliance with the contract on his part, the courts will require nothing more. Where a fire policy forbade that the plaintiff should keep benzine, camphene or any explosive alcohol not being named, and at the trial no evidence is produced as to whether it is explosive or not, or as to its quality, whether the alcohol in question was explosive, was not a question of law. There being no evidence that it was explosive, the insured had the right to assume that it was not forbidden by the policy, especially when it does not appear that the fire originated thence. The defendant was authorized to keep kerosene oil of standard quality 110°, and there was no evidence that the kerosene kept was of that quality. Held, There being no evidence that it was not, or that the fire originated thence, the policy is not avoided. That the defendant instructed his agent in event of a fire not to save anything and thus avoid disputes, does not avoid the policy when the fire took place under such circumstances, that it was impossible to save anything.

By RODMAN, J.

88. A judgment against a guardian on his official bond since the act of 1844 (Batt. Rev., ch. 43, sec. 10.) is conclusive against the surety whether the surety was a party to the action or not. Brown v. Pike, 74 N. C. 531, cited and reaffirmed, RODMAN, J., dubitante, and BYNUM, J. filing an opinion concurring with the majority. The amount of a refunding bond is not fixed by Rev. Code ch. 46, sec. 24, and if the court decreeing settlement does not fix the amount, they are sufficient if aggregating the outstanding indebtedness of the estate. A surety on a refunding bond is liable primarily as between him and the purchasers of land (within the two years) from the heirs. Such surety is liable for a ratable part of a debt proven against the estate, supposing all the other legatees responsible. Their insolvency can not extend his liability. A sale of land by the heir within two years after the death of the ancestor is void, and subsequent purchasers from the first purchaser get no title though they buy for value and without notice. Badger v. Jones, 66 N. C. 306, cited and affirmed. Each devisee or heir is liable for the debts of the devisor or ancestor to the value of the land devised or inherited, and in proportion to their respective values. The whole debt to an amount not exceeding the value received may be made out of any one of them, one paying beyond his due proportion, being entitled to contribution from the others. Hence each legatee, distributee, devisee or heir as to the extent of what he receives, whether in personalty from the testator or intestate is a surety to all the creditors of the testator or intestate, for all the other sharers in the estate. A legacy bequeathed by the testator to his grandchildren, who were wards of a guardian on whose bond he was a surety, was clearly not intended as a payment when it does not appear that the testator knew of any liability by the guardian's default (it accruing subsequently), and besides that he provides in his will for the payment of his debts. It is error to charge the surety for any sums received after the cessation of the guardianship by the marriage or arrival at age of a ward. The guardian is liable individually for his subsequent acts and doings. The personalty must be exhausted before the realty can be reached. A plaintiff, who is the legatee of the surety on his guardian's bond, and at the same time seeks to subject the estate of such surety in the hands of devisees and legatees for breaches of said bond, must first apply all the personalty which came to him, and all he can recover on personal judgments against the other legatees, before he can go upon the real estate to subject it by special execution. The slaves received by the plaintiff he is not compelled to credit before resorting to sale of the realty. The plaintiff is entitled to personal judgments against the other legatees for all beyond his pro rata of the personality, and make them available if he can. A deed by an heir of realty to secure an antecedent debt being bona fide, and for a valuable consideration, if made after the lapse of two years from ancestor's death, the grantee holds free from any liability of plaintiff's debt. Where the wards, land was sold by the guardian, who stood surety on the notes, for the purchase money and who afterwards surrendering the notes, for the purchase money took a conveyance to himself and the wards having taken steps in another proceeding to subject the land when they bought at a less price than the guardian originally gave for the land, on this state of fact the plaintiffs (his wards), are only to allow him the amount they bought the land at. The guardian should be charged with the amount for which he sold the land originally with interest and must be credited with the price at which the plaintiffs bought, just as if anybody else had purchased it. The liability of a purchaser of land who buys from the heir within the two years does not accrue until a failure of the personal estate derived from the testator to pay the plaintiff's debt hence the statute of limitations does not protect him.

BY RODMAN, J.:

89. Conigland v. Smith, from Halifax. Where a father insures his life "for the benefit of his children," it is a gift to his children, subject to be forfeited or surrendered during his life, just as a testator may revoke his will, but the sum to be paid under it is vested in interest when the policy is delivered, and, the policy being in force at his death, vested in possession then. Hence on such a policy the husband of a daughter who pre-deceases her father, is entitled to a child's share as his wife's administrator.

By RODMAN, J.:

90. State ex rel Commissioners of Pender v. McPherson, from Pender.

An action can not be brought against a tax collector and sureties upon his bond at the relation of the County Commissioners unless the complaint sets out a direct and positive averment that the county treasurer has failed or refused to bring suit. A complaint alleging "that the chairman, &c., upon the failure of the treasurer, &c., to sue" and that "the action is brought by the chairman, &c., as required by law" thereby sets out not a statement of facts but a proposition of law and is insufficient.

By RODMAN, J.:

91. Winfield v. Burton, from Halifax. A creditor of a deceased debtor has no right to follow specifically in the hands of an heir the proceeds of land which has been sold more than two years after the death of such debtor. The creditor has a quasi lien on the land for two year i. e. he may under prescribed circumstances subject it to his debt notwithstanding a sale by the heir within that time. He has no property in the land and the quasi lien is destroyed by a sale after two years, leaving him only a personal claim against the heir. Notes taken for land which was sold after the lapse of two years from death of the ancestor are not subject to this quasi lien, still less does it exist against an assignee of them whether he bought them with or without notice of the facts, and of the claims of creditors or not.

By BYNUM, J.:

92. State v. Willard, from New Hanover.

Private acts exempting members of fire companies etc. from "jury and militia duty" does not confer on them exemption from serving as tales jurors. The object of such acts is not to confer special privileges but to exempt members of such companies for the duties of their calling. Being necessarily bystanders it is clear that when summoned as tales jurors they can not be so engaged.

By BYNUM, J.:

93. Mizzell v. Simmons, from Martin.

Where a call is for the "supposed bounds" of another tract, it is totally irrebelant to show that at a long subsequent date, a certain line was reputed to be such "supposed boundaries." Course and distance is a certain description in itself and it can not be made to yield to a "supposed line." Where a call is from an established corner "south 300 poles to or near the head of S. creek" the course and distance must prevail. "To or near" is too vague and indeterminate to establish the terminus of a line. Course and distance only give way to something more certain. If the distance gives out short of the creek it cannot be extended to it, if it goes across the creek there is no rule of construction which requires it stop at it. "To or near" a creek does not make the creek a call of the grant. The courts will construe "East" to mean "West," to correct a mistake when the intent of the parties so appears. What are the termini or boundaries of a deed is a matter of law for the court, where they are is a matter of fact for the jury.

By BYNUM, J.:

94. Perry v Michaux, from Caldwell.

It is a well settled rule that when by the answer the plaintiff's whole equity is denied and the statement in the answer is credible and exhibits no attempt to to evade the material charges in the complaint, an injunction, on motion will be dissolved. Perkins v Hollowell 5 Ire. Eq. 24, and Sharpe v King 3 Ire. Eq. 402 cited and approved.

By FAIRCLOTH, J.

95. State v Lanier, from New Hanover.

The law does not absolutely shut out, as immaterial, an inquiry into the character of a witness two or three years before the trial, and it is error to exclude such evidence. Witnesses when testifying on the subject of general character can not be limited to the time precisely when they are speaking. It is not easy to say just how far back such evidence can go, but the weight of the evidence is for the jury.

By FAIRCLOTH, J.:

96. State v. Pickens, from Buncombe. An indictment, under ch 31, acts 1873-74, making it a misdemeanor to "make any disposition" of any personal property embraced in a chattel mortgage, is fatally defective if it does not allege to whom the defendant sold it, or in what manner he disposed of it. The court will not construe the words in the statute "make any disposition of" so as to make them worse than a drag net.

By FAIRCLOTH, J.:

97. State v. Badham, from Wake. An indictment for a nuisance by profane swearing in a public place is fatally defective if it does not set out, 1, That the offence was committed in the presence and hearing of divers persons then and there assembled. 2, That the acts were so repeated in public as to have become an annoyance and inconvenience to the public. 3. It is necessary to set out the profane words in order that the court may decide as to their quality. The general allegation of ad communem nocumentum is insufficient. Evidence can not supply these deficiencies in the indictment. State v. Pepper, 68 N. C., 259, cited and affirmed.

After the Election.

Hillsboro Recorder

We write with the knowledge that the once glorious Democratic banner of old Orange trails ignominiously in the dust, and the traitor flag of independency floats triumphantly for the while. So far as Orange county could do it. Augustus W. Graham is defeated for the Senate, and John R. Hutchins, the farmer candidate, a man good and true to all he ever professed to be is set aside and of all the regular nomination for the Legislature, M. A. Angier alone is is elected.

It is a result which we bear as patiently as may be; our philosophy not at all tempered by the knowledge that so many Democrats heretofore tried and true united with the opposition; or because that opposition, once a Democrat, rallied to his help all the elements which were once so discordant to him. A conjunction so strange and yet so powerful proved to be irresistible and Josiah Turner is elected by a majority of upwards of five hundred over M. A. Angier, and nine hundred over J. R. Hutchins.

It is a defeat to the Democrats more pregnant with grave consequences than they are prepared to admit. Those who voted for Mr. Turner at present only recognize the triumph of a friend or a victory over cliques. They will, before long, recognize it as a fatal rupture of organization, and the prostration of the barrier which kept back their enemies. Henceforth, the pathway is opened to the worst foes to the welfare of the country; henceforth the policy of the county will be dictated to by the race who have most to gain and least to lose; henceforth demagogues will alone aspire to ride the unruly elements their wild ambition has let loose; because, the restraints of organization being removed, and faith in deliberation being destroyed, there is nothing to control the confusion from which men of real value to the people will carefully withhold themselves.

County Commissioners Chosen.

Correspondence of the News.

GREENSBORO, August 5.

The meeting of the forty-four magistrates of Guilford to-day endorsed and elected four out of five of our old county commissioners, though many names were voted for, thereby endorsing their former actions in the many matters in county affairs, including their action the past two years in refusing to license an open bar room on any part of Guilford soil. Selling liquor for a business in these parts is not popular by any means.

The November Elections.

The State canvass over and Democratic local ascendancy once more assured, we address ourselves to the more important contest which is to terminate on the first Tuesday in November. On that day members of the Forty-Sixth Congress are to be chosen in all the States of the Union. In every section of the country the notes of preparation for the struggle are heard. It is a struggle which will be marked, in many portions of the Republic, by all the excitement and interest of a national election, complicated as it will be by numerous new and disturbing elements. It is, perhaps, not going too far to say that it may virtually decide the question of the next Presidency. No man can yet tell what effect on parties is to be produced by the inevitable agitations of the next two years. When the national campaign of 1880 comes, there may be more than two parties with strength enough to secure the electoral votes of some of the States. Should that be the case, there is at least a probability that the House of Representatives to be chosen this year may have to elect the next President of the United States. Such a contingency brings the white people of the South at once face to face with a tremendous responsibility and involves the determination of their destiny for years to come. They have it in their power to save themselves if they will,—to preserve the muniments of civil liberty and self-government so long withheld and so tardily restored. If they fail to do so, either by criminal inaction or by division among themselves and by the consequent disorganization of the Democratic party, they will experience, as they will deserve, an accumulation of the evils from which they have barely escaped. Theirs will be the terrible reflection, when it may be too late, that they were the unthinking dupes and victims of the machinations of a wily adversary and of selfish and calculating demagogues. It will be their pang, in the critical moment, if it comes, to realize that

"They nursed the pinion that impelled the steel."

The Raleigh special correspondent of the New York Times congratulates that paper that the Democratic party in North Carolina exhibits evidences of "wide-spread disintegration," and adds that, in the recent election, "the negroes were as solidly Republican and as enthusiastic as they ever were." That our friends, with overweening confidence of success, have allowed themselves, in many localities, to be beguiled into indifference or to be cajoled into the support of independent candidates, and, to that extent, suffered demoralization, is painfully patent. That the negroes were as solidly Republican as ever, and that they will continue to be so, is a truth that a blind man can see. How long must it be before our people will recognize the fact that it is but whistling against the wind, that it is the veriest waste of breath and an utter folly and stupidity, to endeavor to propitiate the colored vote? A people that could nominate and elect an ignorant man of their own race to the responsible office of Solicitor in this Judicial District, and that could vote, almost to a man, for Albert Magnin, who was denounced by Lee and Bunting as a thief, and who rather gloried in the savory appellation than sought to disprove it, are beyond the reach of argument or conciliation. They are "joined to their idols" and "should be let alone." The white men of North Carolina will be false, rather, to every instinct of manhood and of duty, if they do not take up the gage thus insolently thrown down and stand on their side of "the color line."

The tactics of the Radical leaders, in failing to place a State ticket in the field, are now, if they were not before, entirely apparent. It was the strategy of the enemy, who withdraws his troops from your front, under feint of retreat, while he attacks, by detachment, in unexpected quarters or sends secret emissaries into your very camp. What they expected to accomplish is told by the same correspondent to whom we have referred: "This election will have a marked effect upon the Congressional elections in November next. It is now probable that a strong fight will be made in each of the eight districts."

Here, then, friends, is the battle we have to fight,—the danger we have to confront! Shall we not meet it like men?" Remembering the condition of affairs in the South but a few years ago, when the bayonet repressed the expression of the popular will, and the reign of military terrorism throttled the voice and bound the hands of our people,—realizing that it is to a Democratic House of Representatives in Congress that we owe our present exemption from these terrible evils,—we shall be recreant, indeed, if we fail to grasp the situation and come up to the full measure of our duty. We have our own fate in our own hands. Every ballot cast, in November, for a Radical candidate for Congress, will be a vote against a Democratic President in 1880. Every ballot cast for an independent candidate for Congress may be such a vote! Let that fact be graven upon the very rocks.

Nor is this all. The correspondent of the Times also says: "With GRANT as the Presidential nominee in 1880, the Republicans in this State will make a desperate and united effort to carry it." Every present indication points to the probability that the hear less soldier with the iron hand, who held the sword at the throats of our people for eight long and weary years, is to be brought back from Europe, where he has been greeted and feted by Kings and Kaisers as the representative American despot, and nominated for a third term by the desperation of the leaders of his party, – by the men who see in the "solid" and recuperated South the end of their greed and the frustration of their malignity, and by the bloated monopolists and bondholders who recognize in Grant their champion against the struggling efforts of honest labor and of equal protection for all.

If, then, there be any one thing in the future more certain than another, it is that every ballot cast in November for a Radical candidate for Congress will be a vote for Ulysses S. Grant for the next Presidency, and that every ballot cast for an independent candidate may be such a vote!

Shall we not pause and ponder these things?

The first intelligence of the election of the Hon. Josiah Turner to the Legislature from the county of Orange that was received in Craven was through a despatch to Thos. Powers, of Newbern, formerly Radical Revenue Collector in that District. The enthusiasm with which the Radical leaders in this city and elsewhere have received the same intelligence is amusingly remarkable and remarkably amusing. The cuticles of these geutry must be of extraordinary toughness and thickness. We confess to no surprise that the negroes should have voted solidly for Mr. Turner. Their votes have only to be tied into a black ball and thrown into the ballot box by a skilful manipulation. But that the white leaders of the party should be throwing up their hats and hurrahing lustily for the man of all men whom they have most bitterly assailed in the past, and who has denounced them beyond the verge of human endurance, in a species of vernacular in which Mr. Turner has few peers, argues a degree of christian charity and forgiveness which is amazing when such qualities are so rare under the sun. Even Sam Watts may now be expected to declare that he intended to compliment "Jo. Turner" by naming that prize-hog after him, and may accept the designation of "greasy" bestowed upon him by Mr. T., as something that was intended to be a flattering soubriquet. Reade, Settle and others may remember his excoriations of an exhausted judiciary and of prostituted justice as but the venial ebullitions of a heated moment. Tim Lee may be induced to consider all that was said about those "bonds" as prompted by a stern and patriotic vigilance over the honor and credit of the State. Logan Harris, even, may yet come to regard that little hint about impeachment as only a sly joke. Meanwhile, we may all smile, and Mr. Turner himself can afford to laugh,—in his sleeve, or "over the left!"

Our County Commissioners.

The new Board of County Commissioners elected by the magistrates of Wake, on Monday, under the operation of our amended constitution, will give general satisfaction. Messrs. Poole, Jones, Allen, Brown and Jinks are all gentlemen intimately identified with our county interests and will be vigilant and energetic custodians of the people's affairs. Without any depreciation of the other gentlemen on the Board, we may be allowed to express our gratification at the restoration to public duty of that venerable and excellent citizen, William R. Poole, Esq. He has served the people of Wake long and faithfully in the past, and, at a ripe old age, he brings to the discharge of his new duties a matured judgment, high businesss capacity and irreproachable integrity.

"It is evident," says the Raleigh correspondent of the New York Times, "that the Nationals will present a streng ticket in this State in 1880, and that the Democratic party will be much more hurt by it than the Republicans." That such an effort will be made we have no doubt; that it will seriously injure the Democratic party we do not believe. With reference to the two great leading features of the National organization,—the expansion of the currency and the recognition and protection of labor,—the record of the Democratic party is satisfactory. This fact is no where better appreci ted than in the States of the North and West, where the Nationals had their rise, and where the effect of their movement will be to subtract five votes from the Radical strength where it takes one from the Democratic party.

Fifth Congressional District.

We call attention to the announcement of the indefatigable Chairman of Executive Committee in the Fifth District as to the time of holding the the Convention to nominate a candidate for Congress. Our friends in that District are alive and active. Desperate efforts are to be made to carry it by the Radicals, and it is already given out that large sums of money, raised by the assessment of office-holders under Hayes' so called "Civil Service Reform," are to be freely used. Forewarned is to be fore-armed, and the Democracy of the Fifth will neither be bought or seduced from their duty.

The Washington Post says:—"The crazy people who endeavor to fix the minimum of men's and women's wages ought, if consistent, to place a limit beyond which employers should not be forced to go. Here is Patti, for instance, who refuses to sing for less than $2,000 a night, while plenty of women never close their mouths except when they sleep, and yet get nothing for it." Can not something, also, be done for the blatant "patriots" who bewail the woes of the working men on street-corners and hustings, but who do no other sort of labor, themselves, and couldn't be dragged to it with a log-chain?

VEGETINE.
For Dropsy.

CENTRAL FALLS, R. I., Oct. 19, 1877.

DR H. R. STEVENS:—

It is a pleasure to give my testimony for your valuable medicine. I was sick for a long time with Dropsy, under the doctor's care. He said it was Water between the Heart and Liver. I received no benefit until I commenced taking the Vegetine; in fact, I was growing worse. I tried many remedies; they did not help me. VEGETINE is the medicine for Dropsy. I began to feel better after taking a few bottles. I have taken thirty bottles in all. I am perfectly well, never felt better. No one can feel more thankful than I do.

I am, dear sir, gratefully yours,
A. D. WHEELER.

Vegetine.—When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, the Vegetine will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

Vegetine.
FOR KIDNEY COMPLAINT AND NERVOUS DEBILITY.

ISLESBORO, ME., Dec. 23, 1877.

MR. STEVENS:

Dear Sir,—I had had a cough, for eighteen years, when I commenced taking the Vegetine. I was very low; my system was debilitated by disease. I had the Kidney Complaint, and was very nervous—cough bad, lungs sore. When I had taken one bottle I found it was helping me; it has helped my cough, and it strengthens me. I am now able to do my work. Never have found anything like the Vegetine. I know it is everything it is recommended to be.

MRS. A. J. PENDLETON.

Vegetine is nourishing and strengthening; purifies the blood; regulates the bowels; quiets the nervous system; acts directly upon the secretions; and arouses the whole system to action.

MRS. JAMES CONNER,

JONES' BAKING POWDER

—:o:—

We ask all cooks, housewives, and the general public to give our goods an impartial test. This Powder is carefully prepared upon scientific principles—the result of long and careful experiments and tests in chemistry. In its proportions and compounding, it is the perfection of science, and is recommended by the leading Chemists in the United States, whose certificates we have. It is perfectly pure and wholesome, and saves time, labor and money to every consumer. It stands Unrivaled; we challenge the world to produce better, purer or more wholesome goods.

REASONS WHY IT SHOULD BE USED:

A barrel of flour makes about 40 pounds more bread. It never fails and always pleases the consumer. It is the perfection of science in cookery. It is a comfort for every home. Your bread will never be sour. Your food will be the best. Your bread will be whiter and richer. Your health will be preserved by its purity.

WARRANTED TO KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE

We do most earnestly caution consumers of Baking Powder against using adulterated and cheap goods, as no good and pure Baking Powder can be sold for less than ours.

An analysis of the cheap clap-trap spurious adulterated goods called Baking Powder would startle the community of consumers beyond precedence, as most of it is not fit for use, and would not be allowed to be sold were the laws enforced; yet goods of this kind are manufactured and sold by dealers because offered cheap by unscrupulous manufacturers. We caution those who value health, and appreciate good, wholesome living, to buy only Pure Baking Powder. Jones' Unrivaled is such. It is an established article through out the West and South, and is recommended by the highest authority for Purity and Strength.

All first-class storekeepers have it because it is pure and can be relied upon, and is a credit to their stock.

Merchants are authorized to warrant our goods where directions are followed.

Our statements are correct and are backed by chemists of note and experience, and we hold ourselves ready to prove our assertions.

We are offering goods of undoubted purity which are in their compounding, as we claim "UNRIVALED."

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, August 6.

South Atlantic and Gulf States; clear or partly cloudy weather; light variable winds mostly southerly; stationary higher pressure and temperature.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——The Merchants' excursion will leave the Central depot at 12:45 p.m.; to-day, arrive at Greensboro' at 5:00 p.m., and at Richmond, at 3:00 a.m.

——On Thursday the Oak City Brass Band will go to Chapel Hill to take part in a celebration by the colored people at Chapel Hill. The celebration is the one intended for the 4th July, but which was postponed.

The Temperature.

Temperature yesterday, as indicated by the thermometer at Tucker's store:

6 a. m.,	76°	2 p. m.,	93°
10 "	82°	6 "	88°

Speaking.

Col. John McDonald spoke at the Yarboro House last evening. He favored the poll tax, spoke afterwards on a variety of subjects.

Mayor's Court.

The only offenders before the Mayor yesterday were a party of young men, who for a slight infraction of the code of morals were dismissed on payment of a small fine.

The County Commissioners.

This body met at the poor house yesterday, and made the regular quarterly inspection of the condition of that building and its inmates. The Board will be in session here to-day, and will probably dispose of the business for this session.

Baptist Association.

Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., returned from Hickory on Monday, and left yesterday to attend the Flat River Association, which meets near Henderson. The meetings of this Association are always attended by large numbers of persons.

To Beaufort.

On the 13th instant, R. H. Bradley will take charge of a party of excursionists to Beaufort, who will make the trip in a special car. The fare has been placed at $8.00, round trip. This means of travel affords peculiar comfort, particularly to ladies. These may rest assured of being in a pleasant party.

The National.

The pioneer organ of the new National party will appear in this city on Wednesday, August 14th. The proprietors of the new comer assert that it begins its existence under favorable auspices. The motto of the journal is "The freedom of the press consists in publishing the truth without respect to persons."

Fierce Rather than Poetic.

The old court is dying. As yet it has filed no poetry this term but the court has feelings though it is not sentimental. On yesterday Faircloth, J., thus expressed himself in the opinion in State v. Barham: "In an indictment for profanity the record should set out the profane words that the court may judge of their quality"

Something Soothing.

An agreeable change, from the political excitements through which we have just passed, will be welcomed, to-day by our citizens who have so often regaled themselves with the inimitable Sea Turtle Soup, served by old reliable Pepper, on Wilmington steet. The hour of commencement is fixed at 11 o'clock. Families, as usual, supplied.

Grand Excitement.

Our tried and true merchant, A. Creech, offers excursion tickets to his mammoth establishment free. The variety and extent of his display of dry goods is a wonder to all. And in his ad. in to-day's issue he says, "talk about cost, below cost and bankrupt stocks, why Creech's is the place to buy goods." Try him.

Enjoying the Vacation.

The Chapel Hill Ledger says: Pres. Battle, Prof. Winston, and Dr. Phillips are taking a short leave of absence from the scene of their arduous labors. President Battle is at his farm in Edgecombe; Dr. Phillips laughs and grows fat at the White Sulphur Springs; while Prof. Winston is enjoying the ocean breezes.

Court Notes.

The Criminal Court meets on Monday. There are about 49 cases on the criminal docket, and about 60 on the warrant docket. The court will sit one week and then adjourn for two weeks to allow the sitting of the Superior Court, which meets on the third Monday. The first week of the Criminal Court will be devoted to jail cases, in order to effect a clearance of the jail.

Lecture this Evening.

Do not fail to hear the Hon. Duncan K. McRae this evening at Tucker Hall, in behalf of the Young Men's Christian Association of this city. The cause is a good one which deserves encouragement, and it will besides be a real treat to hear Mr. McRae.

Tickets for sale at the three bookstores. Admission fee twenty-five cents. Lecture commences at half-past o'clock.

Lunatics Incurable Returned from the Asylum.

In response to a letter of inquiry as to the support of lunatics who have been returned from the Insane Asylum to their counties, as incurable, to be cared for by the counties, and asking whether they will have to be adjudged in open court as lunatics under the present statute, or whether accounts against the State will be audited without such adjudication, the State Auditor says: "No claims for the maintenance of such lunatics can be audited until they have been duly declared insane by an inquisition of a jury in accordance with 'an act concerning the maintenance of lunatics outside the Asylum, ratified March 12th, 1877. See section 1 of said Act."

Decidedly Convenient.

The exertion of fanning one's self even is attended with discomfort this torrid weather, and to prevent such use of muscular power, a patent Fan Attachment by means of which a fan is attached to a sewing machine and operated by the treadle. This invention will be found a real blessing in these dog-days. Mr. Geo. B. Harwood, a most deserving deaf mute, has the agency, and will call on the citizens, that all may see the attachment.

Worth Attention.

The Superior Court of Cincinnati has decided that where a bank receives on deposit, as cash, sight drafts of a depositor, the bank is not bound to pay checks drawn against the fund, after a default in the payment of the drafts. The implied condition is that the drafts are to be paid, and when the condition is broken the bank has a right to withdraw its credit, and this right is superior to that of the depositor to check against the credit fund.

Post Office Notes.

It has been determined by the post office department to extend the registry system to third class matter, and a formal order to this effect will soon be issued. This change will go into effect October 1st, but it will not be merely experimental or confined to ten large offices as recommended by the recent convention of railways superintendents, but will take effect generally and become a feature of the regular postal system.

City Suggestions.

New Berne Avenue, at the Bloodworth street crossing, is rather an unhealthy place for vehicles. The residents near there suggest that it be looked after.

The nuisance of cows on the streets is unabated. A night or so since a physician drove over one of the beasts while she was sweetly sleeping in the middle of one of the principal thoroughfares. It is said the citizens have voted to allow cows to ramble round the city. If this is the fact, the citizens need guardianship.

Personals.

Hon. J. A. Engelhard, Secretary of State, arrived in the city yesterday, after a visit to Wrightsville, near Wilmington.

Hon. Josiah Turner is also in the city.

We were pleased to receive a call, yesterday, from Mr. C. H. Beckwith, of the firm of Hunter & Beckwith, of Manly Station, N. C. This firm are supplying lumber for the new "Science Hall" at Wake Forest, N. C., and have a large, increasing demand for their lumber throughout the State.

Graphite Mining.

Work at the Graphite mines, four miles from this city, is now being vigorously prosecuted. These mines were bought some time since by three gentlemen of this city, and their energy and means are being used to push the work. About twenty-five laborers are now employed. The shafts now penetrate the earth to a considerable depth, while the excavations underground are large. The lead, as fast as mined, is freighted to New York, where a factory converts it into things useful in various ways. During the past two weeks 75 tons were shipped. At the end of week a shipment of 100 tons will be made. A number of teams are now engaged in hauling the graphite. This is now being mined at the rate of ten tons per day.

Supreme Court.

Court met at 9 o'clock on yesterday. All the Justices present.

The consideration of appeals at the end of the docket was resumed and causes were disposed of as follows:

L. B. Manning vs. Caroline A. Manning, et als., from Halifax; argued for the plaintiff by T. N. Hill and Day & Hall, and for the defendants by Muller & Moore, S. Whitaker and A. W. Haywood.

R. G. Lewis, surviving parner, vs. M. Rountree & Company, from Wake; argued for the plaintiffs by E. G. Haywood and D. G. Fowle, and for the defendants by Gilliam & Gatling.

Pending the argument of this case, the Court adjourned until this (Wednesday) morning at 9 o'clock.

The Methodist Excursion.

The excursion train from Greensboro came into the city yesterday morning bearing a large number of passengers. Additions made to the number here, brought it up to about 400. Many persons on the line of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad came in on Monday and joined the party. The cars were comfortable and the day a pleasant one, so there is every reason to expect an enjoyable trip. Those who left the city were select, and among them were Rev. W. S. Black, pastor Edenton Street Church, and a number of other prominent gentlemen, most of whom were accompanied by their families. The train arrived at Beaufort at 5 p. m. The results of the excursion, pecuniarily, it is hoped will aid materially in the work of building the new church edifice.

Fight in Henderson.

On Monday a row occurred in Henderson, wherein a number of pistol shots were fired, several of which took effect. One negro received a wound, which, it is thought, will prove mortal.

The latest news would seem to indicate that the row arose out of a difficulty between one Mr. Hughes and a man named Gooch, a bar-keeper, who had assisted in thrashing Hughes on election day. Hughes was accompanied by a negro, Ed. Hughes, who engaged in the fight and made threats against a Mr. Cooper, a bystander. He shot at the latter, who fired and struck Ed. Hughes in the head. Hughes in a few moments fired at him and ran, when Cooper again fired, the ball hitting his back near the spine. The physician was afraid to probe for the ball. A number of spectators witnessed the shooting. No arrests were made. The negro Ed. Hughes, as well as the white man, Hughes, are both spoken of as disorderly characters.

The Richmond Excursionists.

The mercantile interests of this city will be well represented in the excursion to Richmond, in the train which leave the Central depot, at 12:45 to-day. The entire trip is made without cost as to railway fares. On arrival at Richmond the visitors from the State will be met with true hospitality by their friends of the old Dominion, who have so generously extended invitations and railway passes. More than ordinary interest has been developed in the trip here, where the people have such a fondness for free excursions, and Raleigh will contribute her fair share to the party. Most of the visitors will remain in Richmond for five or six days. During their stay, they will have an opportunity to view the many objects of note in and around that historic city. A supper will be given them, and their reception will be marked by that courtesy, for which Virginia and Virginians are world-famous. The visitors will surely bring back pleasant recollections of the famous Capital of the South, which by its present enterprise offers so many inducements to its commercial men.

Liver is King.

The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural results. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles, to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

Thse important channel of exit, the bowels, may be kept permanently free from obstructions by using the non griping, gently acting and agreeable cathartic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which not only liberates impurities, but invigorates the lining of the intestinal canal when weakened by constipation or the unwise use of violent purgatives. The stomach, liver and urinary organs are likewise reinforced and aroused to healthful action by this beneficent tonic and corrective, and every organ, fiber, muscle and nerve experiences a share of its invigorating influence. Unobjectionable in flavor, a most genial and wholesome medicinal stimulant, and owing its efficacy to botanic sources exclusively, it is the remedy best adapted to household use on account of its safety, while scope and and speedy action. aug 6-6t

Western North Carolina Railroad.

The withdrawalby Weddin & Bailey of their coaches and teams from the Western North Carolina Railroad, at Henry, will result in no inconvenience to the traveling public, as an entirely new outfit of coaches, carriages and hacks, with splendid horses, was placed on the line between Henry and Asheville, by Brown and Verble, before the above mentioned withdrawal of Weddin & Bailey.

The new line offers every facility for the accomodation and convenience of the public. Families can still have conveyances to themselves when desired.

Railroad companies and others who have been selling tickets to Asheville and Warm Springs with coupons attached for stage line from head of Western North Carolina Railroad, will continue to do so, as such coupons will be recognized and received for fare over the new line. 1m.

This celebrated blood purifying remedy has long been recognized by the physicians in the North and East for its very remarkable curative properties, and is universally used in their private practice. Vegetine contains no minerals, but is a purely vegetable remedy, and strengthens and invigorates the system in a manner that astonishes all who have either tried it themselves or seen its effects upon others. Scrofula of twenty-five years standing, and pronounced by scientific physicians hopelessly incurable, has disappeared after Vegetine has been used but a short time, and the worst ulcers and running sores, have been cured by the use of a few bottles. Dr. H. R.
